Pennsylvania Gaming Control Board Releases 2022-2023 Annual Report

HARRISBURG, PA: The Pennsylvania Gaming Control Board (PGCB) has released the 17th edition of its Annual Report.

The PGCB's 2022-2023 Annual Report provides detail on the work of the agency in regulating the Commonwealth's gaming industry, and also includes:

- individual revenue figures during another record-setting fiscal year for slot machines, table games, sports wagering, internet gaming, fantasy sports contests and video gaming terminals at eligible truck stops;
- a year in review report with pertinent statistical figures from the PGCB's key bureaus;
- information on the PGCB's Don't Gamble with Kids initiative; and,
- a section on problem gambling and the PGCB's Self-Exclusion Program.

The PGCB was established in 2004 through the passage of the Pennsylvania Race Horse Development and Gaming Act. Since then it has become one of the pre-eminent gaming regulators in the world overseeing all aspects of gambling in the Commonwealth which, at the close of the fiscal year included:

- 17 land-based casinos;
- 19 retail sports wagering locations;
- 13 online sports wagering sites;
- 20 sites to participate in online casino-type games (slot machines, table games, poker);
- 69 truck stop establishments with Video Gaming Terminals (VGTs); and,
- 11 online fantasy sports contest sites.

In addition to supporting over 15,000 jobs, casinos and the other types of Board-regulated gaming generated over $2.3 billion in tax revenue during the 2022/2023 State Fiscal Year.

The report can be downloaded by visiting the Gaming Control Board's web site, www.gamingcontrolboard.pa.gov, and choosing the 2022-2023 PGCB Annual Report link under the Quick Links section of the homepage.
