

of the Self-Exclusion List. For this reason, you should refrain from entering a licensed VGT establishment for 15 business days after the expiration of your VGT self-exclusion.

Lifetime self-exclusions do not expire.

What will happen after I sign up for self-exclusion?

VGT establishments must refuse wagers from and deny gaming privileges to any self-excluded person; deny check cashing privileges, player club membership, complimentary goods and services, junket participation and other similar privileges and benefits to any self-excluded person; ensure that self-excluded persons do not receive junket solicitations, targeted mailings, telemarketing promotions, player club materials or other promotional materials relating to VGT activities.

After a person is placed on the VGT Self-Exclusion List, a person will be unable to participate in VGT activities in PA.

A self-excluded person who has gambled while on the self-exclusion list may not collect in any manner or in any proceeding any winnings or recover any losses arising as a result of any gaming activity for the entire period of time that the person is on the Self-Exclusion List. Any winnings issued to, found on or about or redeemed by a self-excluded person shall be remitted to the PGCB and are used towards its responsible gambling programs.

If a person violates the terms of self-exclusion, they may be subject to arrest.

Does self-exclusion from VGT apply to other forms of gambling?

No. The PGCB's VGT Self-Exclusion List does not ban player participation in all PA gambling venues.

Other self-exclusion programs available in PA:

Visit www.gamingcontrolboard.pa.us for more information

- Self-Exclusion from casinos
- Self-Exclusion from fantasy sports
- Self-Exclusion from iGaming
- Self-Exclusion from iLottery- There is a separate self-exclusion program for the Pennsylvania Lottery's online iLottery games. To learn how to place yourself on that list, visit the PA Lottery website www.palottery.com.

For information on gambling disorder treatment options, call 1-800-GAMBLER

Website:
www.gamingcontrolboard.pa.gov

E-mail:
problemgambling@pa.gov

Address:
Pennsylvania Gaming Control Board
P.O. Box 69060
Harrisburg, PA 17106-9060
Attn: Office of Compulsive and Problem Gambling

VIDEO GAMING TERMINAL

Pennsylvania Gaming Control Board
Office of Compulsive and Problem Gambling

Self- EXCLUSION PROGRAM

WHAT IS VGT Self-Exclusion?

Video Gaming Terminal (VGT) Self-Exclusion is a process that allows a person to voluntarily request to be banned from all legalized VGT gaming activities and prohibits the person from collecting any winnings, recovering any losses or accepting complimentary gifts or services or any other thing of value at a licensed VGT establishment.

How do I get placed on the VGT Self-Exclusion List?

You can sign up for the VGT Self-Exclusion Program by visiting the PGCB's website, www.gamingcontrolboard.pa.gov. Also, a person may have his or her own name placed on the self-exclusion list in person at one of the PGCB's offices, call (717)346-8300 for an appointment.

May I mail the self-exclusion application to one of the PGCB offices?

No. The person filing the request for self-exclusion must apply online or in person at a PGCB office, call (717)346-8300 for an appointment.

Can I place a family member with a gambling problem on the list?

No. A person cannot place another person's name on the Self-Exclusion List. Placement on the list is entirely voluntary and must be done by the individual seeking exclusion.

What information must I provide?

1. Name, including any aliases or nicknames
2. Physical description including height, gender, hair color, eye color and any other physical characteristics that may assist in proper identification
3. Date of Birth
4. Address of current residence and/or P.O. BOX
5. Telephone number

6. Social Security number, when voluntarily provided in accordance with section 7 of the Privacy Act of 1974 (5 U.S.C. § 552a)
7. Email address
8. Government-issued photo identification such as a driver's license or passport

How long will I be on the Self-Exclusion List?

The person filing the request for self-exclusion may request to be excluded from video gaming terminal activities for one of the following: One year (12 months); Five years; or Lifetime.

Can I extend my period of VGT Self-Exclusion?

Yes. You can extend the period of self-exclusion by visiting the PGCB's website, www.gamingcontrolboard.pa.gov or at one of the PGCB's offices, call (717)346-8300 for an appointment.

Can my name be removed from the Self-Exclusion List?

Self-exclusions for 1 or 5 years remain in effect until that time period has expired. At the expiration of your self-exclusion, your self-exclusion will be lifted unless you contact the Board prior to the conclusion of your self-exclusion period and request for your self-exclusion to be extended.

Within 10 business days after the expiration, the Board will delete your name from the Self-Exclusion List and will notify each VGT establishment of the expiration. It may take each VGT establishment up to 5 business days to remove your name from their copies