Miscellaneous Information

On June 24, 2021, McLaughlin arrived at a casino located in Philadelphia, parked his vehicle in the parking lot, and entered the casino. Approximately one minute later, a casino employee walked by the vehicle and saw two unattended minors inside. The children were later determined to be 13 years old and three years old. The employee contacted security staff who responded to the vehicle. Minutes later, security staff found McLaughlin at a sportsbook kiosk on the gaming floor and brought him back to the vehicle. The children were unattended for approximately two minutes and 48 seconds before security staff arrived at the vehicle. McLaughlin was away from the vehicle for approximately nine minutes. Casino staff permanently evicted him because of these actions; however, he was not criminally charged.
