EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR'S REPORT

Executive Director, Kevin O'Toole, gave his Executive Director's Report and began by speaking about the National Council of Legislators from Gaming States, or NCLGS, which held its 2024 Summer Conference the week prior, July 17-20. He further explained it was held at the Rivers Casino in Pittsburgh and many of the attendees stayed at the Landing Hotel, which is the casino's hotel that is fairly new. Kevin shared the conference brought in over 300 attendees, which included three Gaming Control Board employees who were also on panels during the conference. The employees involved on the panel were Paul Resch, Director of the Bureau of Casino Operations, who spoke regarding the challenges in which regulators have faced in the area of iGaming, Lee Copello, Director of iGaming Operations, spoke about the best practices for developing good regulations for iGaming activity, and Mr. O'Toole himself appeared on the panel and spoke about what aspects of iGaming activity would encourage more legislation approving iGaming since there are only 7 jurisdictions that have legalized iGaming. Kevin explained his emphasis was on how legislation in Pennsylvania effectively allocates tax revenue so that taxes would benefit all the categories of the populations.

Kevin concluded his report by confirming the NCLGS conference was very informative and was hopeful for the conference to return to Pennsylvania soon to sponsor another conference.

OFFICE OF FINANCIAL MANAGEMENT

Director of Financial Management, Dave Rhen, gave his 2023-2024 fiscal year, fourth quarter budget report, which he stated concluded on June 30th, 2024. He explained that although the fiscal year had ended, they will continue to receive invoices which will cause expenditures to accumulate over the next several months. Because of this, he included anticipated expenditures in the figures that he reported.

For the fiscal year, expenditures totaled $51.99 million against an appropriation of $52.16 million, which gave PGCB an anticipated ending balance of approximately $170 thousand. Overall, Rhen explained, expenditures increased by $4.3 million or 9.1% due to an increase in personnel costs. He further explained 90% of the expenditures or $46.6 million were for salaries and benefits, with the remaining 10% or $5.4 million for operating expenses.

Dave Rhen followed up with stating personnel expenses consisted of $27.1 million for salaries, $19.3 million for benefits, and $250 thousand for retirement leave payouts, while benefits as a percentage of salaries were 70%. Personnel costs increased $4.9 million, or 11.7% from the prior year, which Dave explained was due to the expansion of the complement and salary increases.

He also said expenditures in the operating category were $5.3 million, which included $1.8 million for services such as interagency billings provided by Commonwealth agencies, $1.7 million for rentals and leases, and $1.1 million for other operating expenses, such as subscriptions for databases used in background investigations. These expenses decreased by $550 thousand from last year.

Dave Rhen concluded his report by stating the Fiscal Year for 2024-2025's appropriation has been enacted for $57,222,000.
