Miscellaneous Information On or about November 18, 2022, Stokes and two accomplices launched a “credential stuffing attack” and obtained access approximately 60,000 iGaming accounts across several jurisdictions. In addition to accessing the accounts himself, Stokes also sold credentials to access victim’s accounts on various “dark web” websites that traffic in stolen accounts. As a result of these actions, approximately $600,000 from 1,600 iGaming accounts were stolen by them and others who purchased the credentials on the dark web.
